Activity Objectives

- Learn about the famous Hong Kong landmark - the Hong Kong Lookout Tower.
- Understand the origins of the Hong Kong Lookout Tower.
- Recognize that Hong Kong is part of China, enhancing young children's national awareness.
- Appreciate the views of the 18 districts of Hong Kong.
- Enrich the life experiences of young children.

Activity Overview

The original location of the Hong Kong Lookout Tower marks the spot where the British first landed in the New Territories. Therefore, during Hong Kong's handover to China, a tower was erected at this site to commemorate the return of Hong Kong to the motherland. Teachers led the young children to Tai Po Waterfront Park, where they admired and learned about the unique form and history of the Handover Tower, as well as enjoyed views of Tolo Harbour and the 18 districts of Hong Kong. This not only enriched the students' life experiences but also helped them understand that Hong Kong is part of China, fostering their national awareness and sense of identity.
