Class

Activity Name

"Rekindling Chinese Sentiments" Event (Part 6) –Chinese Traditional Handicraft - Dough Figurines

Activity Objectives

- Understanding that dough figurines are a traditional Chinese handicraft.
- Appreciating and carrying forward Chinese artistic culture.
- Improving children's finger dexterity and proprioception through kneading, cutting, and sticking techniques.
- Starting from scratch, encouraging children to contemplate the form of characters before shaping them, enhancing their creativity.

Activity Overview

Dough sculpture (commonly known as dough figurines) is one of the traditional folk arts in China and was once a popular pastime in Hong Kong. Creating dough figurines involves sticking together dough of different colors, testing children's patience. Through experiencing techniques like kneading, cutting, and sticking, children can personally design intricate character figures in the activity.
